

Court has heretofore had final jurisdiction shall be the same as is allowed jurors in such Superior Courts of the county wherein the recorder's court may be established hereunder.

COUNTY RECORDERS' COURTS

SEC. 25. The board of commissioners of any county in which a municipal recorder's court may not be established by the foregoing provisions of this act, or in which such municipal recorder's court has in fact not been established under said act in the county seat town in the discretion of said board of commissioners, may establish, in the manner hereinafter provided, a recorder's court for the entire county, to be held at the county seat of such county as herein provided. Such court shall be a court of record and shall be presided over by a recorder, who shall have the same qualification as hereinbefore provided for recorders of municipalities. The first recorder, upon establishment of such court, shall be elected by the board of commissioners of such county, either at the time of the establishment of the court or within thirty days thereafter, and shall hold the office until the next regular election wherein county officers are elected, and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified; and should a vacancy occur in said office at any time the same shall be filled by the election of a successor, with the qualification herein provided for the unexpired term, by the said board of county commissioners at a regular or special meeting called for that purpose. The successor of said first recorder herein provided for and each succeeding recorder shall be nominated and elected in such county in the same manner and at the same time as is now provided by law for the nomination and election of the elective officers of such county and in the general election for such elective officers. Before entering upon the duties of his office the said recorder shall take and subscribe an oath of office as is now provided by law for justices of the peace, and shall file the same with the clerk of the Superior Court of such county, who shall duly record the same in a book kept for that purpose. Said recorder's salary shall be fixed in advance by the board of commissioners, and paid out by the county funds upon vouchers, and shall not be increased or decreased during his term.	County recorder's court.
	Place of sitting.
	Qualifications of recorder.
	Election.
	Term of office.
	Vacancy.
	Successor.
	Recorder to take oath.
	Oath filed and recorded.
	Compensation.
SEC. 26. Said court shall be open for the trial of all criminal causes of which it has jurisdiction at least one day of each week, to be fixed by the board of county commissioners, and shall continue its session from day to day until all business is transacted by trial, continuance, or otherwise. Such session of said court shall be held in the county courthouse or other place within the said county provided by the board of commissioners for that purpose. Special sessions of the said court may be called by the recorder as the necessities may require: Provided, however, that when any case has been finally disposed of by said recorder and	Court open at least once a week.
	Sessions of court.
	Proviso: no reopening of case or revision of judgment after adjournment.